Business Process Management

Our Services

Our BPM Services are focused on helping organizations use information as an asset to support and enhance business planning and forecasting, performance monitoring, business creation and realization as well as to achieve the needed business governance.

Businesses often drive some common BPM best practices and "adoption patterns" that we are seeing in the market:

- Process automation for greater efficiency and reduced costs
- Insight and real-time visibility for smarter decisions and faster actions
- Faster and easier to respond to change by adapt and respond dynamically

We can help executives unleash the power of their value creation and business performance by managing the processes and systems needed to integrate information, activities and value across the entire value chain.

By using our holistic BPM value approach consisting of a strategy to design through implementation and transformation, which encompasses people, process, information content and technology transformation, Value Team can help link business value and performance measures with strategy and operational imperatives. These measures can then be applied in a timely, cost-effective manner, while delivering growth, competitive advantage as well as operational efficiency to executives, managers and the different information consumers.

We know we can and will deliver value and offer therefore also workshop in the following areas:

- BPM Proof of Concept
- BPM Maturity Healthcheck
- SOA Governance Approach
- SOA Maturity Healthcheck
- SAP Express Value Creation
- SAP Value Management
